Questions:

- 1) One of the most important issues that the Board must continue to deal with is the effective use of our resources to help deliver services to our contracting school districts. The knowledge gained from past service on the Board is helpful in maintaining the necessary fiscal responsibility required.
- 2) My experience and past community service is valuable in my service on the Governing Board of the Educational Service Center of Lake Erie West. In addition, my experience as an attorney is helpful to the Board and adds a different perspective that complements our other Governing Board members.
