Everett Harris

Education: Attended University of Toledo.

Current Occupation: I'm a licensed Insurance and Real Estate Salesperson.

Qualifications: My qualifications are numerous. I have been named an All Ohio Board member and a Master Board member as well as many other honors over the years I have served on the board. I attend many conferences and meetings, plus a lot of reading school board material in order to accumulate knowledge to help me make the proper decisions to help our students succeed after graduation.

Questions:

1) One of the most important issues is and has been funding for public schools. We are in a consortium that is aimed at helping acquire more funding to take the burden off of our local tax payers, especially our senior population.

2) I bring 44 years and eleven terms as a member of the Springfield Local Board of Education. my experience in handling issues that promote a strong education for our students is invaluable to the success of our school system. Public education is the backbone of our countries education system and it must keep improving in order to meet our technological future.
